

It is the unchanged development philosophy of Penda Group to advocate green environmental protection, implement energy-saving production and create low-carbon life. For over 20 years after its establishment, Penda Group has been adhering to the consistent innovative spirit, making huge investment in kiln waste heat utilization, motor frequency conversion and energy saving, tail gas dedusting and desulfurization, waste recovery and so on, recovering and saving lots of energy. Besides through numerical control and automation upgrading of production equipment, we utilize computer control technology to realize production automation, to increase efficiency and precision, and to provide you with more colorful and environment-friendly architectural ceramic products.

Comfortable home

We spend longest hours at home each day. Home is the place where we share family love. Comfortable environment is good for emotional exchange and family harmony. Hensepai Ceramics is dedicated to R&D and innovation of ceramic products, making quality products that meet modern aesthetic concepts, and creating comfortable household life for us. Here we can achieve total relaxation of body and mind, and enjoy delight brought by life.

Polished Tiles

Perfect quality from extraordinary Crafts. Each product is a rare classic work of art with delicate glow light.

New heat polished tiles take leading production technology "waterfall charging technology" and "magic charging technology", modeled on rare natural stones. The tiles show delicate textures, natural color and more three-dimensional for consumers to create a comfortable, stylish, taste of home life.

Healthy Home

Visit oceans, visit plain and peaceful villages—embracing the nature can relieve our pressure, the beautiful nature is the holy land we long for. Newpearl Ceramics practices energy saving and emission reduction and clean production, absorbs beauty of everything and understand the logic of everything, making healthy and environment-friendly natural products. Our products feature various styles of wood grain imitator, sandstone, leather and so on, seemingly bringing the nature into our home. Poetic space meets our aspiration for a fine nature.

Rustic Tiles

Every product is the essence of the culture of the city and the innovation of the modern lifestyle.

Newpearl tiles take the core elements of them, are used with the world's top glass and have taken a variety of industry leading technology. The multi-dimensional granulation, air hole and crystal under glaze color. The tiles get superior product quality and the perfect integration of the European and American craft and modern Chinese cultural civilization. Newpearl Rustic tiles will be the favorite of people and to be the pioneer choice of the floor tiles.
